There has existed throughout the history of mankind a strange, albeit, an ironic relationship between the past and the future. The people who just eulogize their past without critical analysis and seek to recreate a utopian past almost invariably do not succeed, while those who view the past realistically, comprehensively and critically are able to draw on the past in useful, meaningful and lasting ways. They learn lessons from the history and apply those lessons for better future. Such people have confidence in their future, and they approach the past with seriousness and critical reverence. They study the past realistically, try to comprehend the values, aesthetics, and traits which invested an earlier civilization its grandeur or caused it to decline. They preserve its remains, and enshrine relevant and enriching images and events of the past in their memories both collectively and individually. They attempt to adopt the values and traits which led earlier people rise, and shun the reasons and mistakes that precipitated their downward journeys. In sharp contrast to them, people and governments with an uncertain sense of the future manifest deeply skewed and subjective relationships to their history. They eschew lived history, shut out its lessons, shun critical inquiries into the past, neglect its remains but, at the same time, invent at their own imagined an utopian past-always shining, splendid and glorious. As a matter of fact, they are never able to benefit from their past. They study history, but learn nothing from history.

بغاویہ کہ پاکستانی قوم نے ہمیشہ محرمات اور بہادری سے ہر نتیجے کا مقابلہ کیا ہے اور اللہ کے فضل سے ہمیشہ سرخرو ہوئی ہے۔ دہشت گردی کے مقابلہ میں پوری قوم نے جس طرح اتحاد اور قانون نافذ کرنے والے اداروں کا ساتھ دیا وہ اپنی مثال کا ہے اور مسلح افواج اور دیگر اداروں کے جوانوں نے اپنی جان کی قربانی دیکر دہشت گردی کو جس طرح تادیب و سنہری حروف سے لیسنے کے قابل ہے۔ اللہ کے فضل سے آج ملک میں امن قائم ہو چکا ہے۔ توانائی کی حالت بہتر ہے۔ ملک میں پانی کے نئے ذخائر بن رہے ہیں۔ دن بدن مطلوب ہو رہی ہے۔ مسایہ ممالک خاص طور پر عرب ممالک کے ساتھ تعلقات روز بروز بہتر ہو رہے ہیں۔ آج پاکستان خطے میں باوقار، مضبوط، پر امن اور ترقی کر چکا ہے۔ انشا اللہ پاکستان کا مستقبل روشن ہے۔

Significance of history

A man has an organic relationship between the past and the future. People neglecting the fact of history remain unsuccessful, while others interesting in it leads to success. As they examine reality, and leads to prosperous future. Consequently, they enhance their talent, because they approach the past with value of its rise and decline. They also keep remains as memorial reminders of realistic history. On the other hand, people neglecting factual data and driving own luxurious style get nothing valuable from history.
