While taking a nap on the porch one hot summer day, Hodga dreamt that a stranger promised to give him ten pieces of gold. The stranger placed them in Hodga's hand one by one until he reached the tenth piece which he hesitated to give him. "Come on! What are you waiting for?" said Hodga, "You promised me ten". Just then, he woke up. He immediately looked at his hand and saw that it was empty. He quickly shut his eyes again, stretched out his hand, and said, "All right. I'll settle for nine".

Punctuation (CSS-22)

Unfortunately, we often miss a basic school lesson: Every big task consists of several small ones done precisely and perfectly. As a nation, we acutely need to learn the art of breaking down our moonlit goals into small accomplishable tasks. It will reduce frustration, anxiety, depression in society, and embarrassment for the government machinery too - as they don't have to defend their unkept promises.

Punctuation (CSS-21)

~~That familiarity produces, neglect has

That familiarity produces, neglect has been long observed, the effect of all external objects. However great or splendid, ceases with their novelty.

The courtier stands, without emotions,
in the royal presence; the music
tramples under his foot; the beauties of the spring with little attention to their fragrance; And the inhabitant of the coast darts his eyes upon the immense diffusion of waters without awe, wonder, and or terror.

Punctuation (CSS-20)

Letters between relatives and friends are called personal letters. The most important thing in such letters is: the content don't begin with a hackneyed phrase like "I was delighted to get your letter", "received your letter", or "I have often thought of writing to you". Use a vigorous, clear, & chatty style.
