

Information Technology: A blessing or curse

1. Introduction:

Thesis statement: Information Technology proves both as a blessing and a curse for human but it depends upon its uses. It proves more as a blessing than a curse. Because Information Technology opens the new doors of trade; provides effective way of communication; and also enhances the level of education.

2. How is Information Technology emerging as a powerful tool?

3. Information Technology is beneficial for human-being.

a) Information Technology provides security and maintains privacy of human/man.

b) It helps to improve the level of education

c) Information Technology upgrades economy and increases GDP growth

d) Health sector is improving because of new technology.

e) Agriculture sector is becoming advance by using Information Technology

4. Human suffers from many problems just because of Information Technology

a) Information Technology effects privacy of a person (Threat ~~to~~ security of nation because of I.T)

b) Students faces problems in practical life because of lack of technical/critical thinking.

c) It proves a burden on economy because of high cost.

d) Diseases increase because of harmful radiation ^{that} emit from technology.

e) ~~the~~ Farmers cannot bear high-cost technology

5- Information Technology proves more as a blessing than a curse.

a) Security of a state becomes effective by controlling its negative uses.

b) Through Information Technology students must be able to stand with globe

c) ^{Paying} High cost at once gives long-time benefits

d) Curing every disease becomes possible because of Information Technology

e) Our dependency of Economy on agriculture needs advancement to fulfill our needs

6- Conclusion.