

Precis 1984

Life is combination of sorrows and happiness. A man cannot eliminate sorrows/unhappiness from his life. Maybe a good man feel angry with world for a short time period but he cannot cutoff from the world. World is a looking glass it seems beautiful when you see with hope but it looks like sad and helpless when you see with hoplessness. Everything has its two aspects and we should look at the bright side. A good person seems good in every aspect. Show love who are even not near to you. Life sometimes show its bright and sometime its dark side. A person who is morally good nothing bad will happen with him ever.

Title: Man writes his own fate.

Translation : CSS 2022

Every era brings alot of matters with itself which no one likes but has to accept. Sometimes it also happens that to test us nature brings something before us with which we have no mean, but we have to add it in our life-

Today this also happen every century has been bringing some changes with it, which were new for previous centuries-

Development of natural science gives alot of things to human which is considered as waste of scientific and economic process- Nature gives us fruit and at the same time binds us to dispose off its peels properly- if it is not done properly the environmental degradation increases-

Comprehension : CSS 2022

1- According to author civil society is the place where individual interact with each other having conversation about different areas, talk about community and influence public policy- People spend there time at places like library, sport club and interact with different individual may have common interests, and discuss on different matters-

2- As they share common interests or goals like games and then they try to tolerate difference which may arise. This will appreciate and end up of social difference.

3- Social Capital ~~means~~ refers to the development of trust and remove communication gap which is helpful for the betterment of society.

4- Civil society assumes the role of public stake holders as thinking from this perspective people start to think about public interest as its own interest. This will influence both public and private opinion.

5- By the weakening state of civil society political institutions will work with less efficiency. So, not interaction within society will impact the whole society as decrease in social bonding.