

Outline

Social Media has destroyed Real Life Communication^{n.}

1. Introduction

Social media plays a crucial role in real-life communication. It has not destroyed real-life communication but ^{has} ~~made~~ it more advanced and reliable. The journey from birds to live chat is the triumph of social media in the transmission field.

2. Correlation between Social media and real life Communication

3. Social media has not destroyed real life communication^{atq}

- a. Social media removes the geographical barrier to connect the individuals^{duals}
- b. Social media promotes the global connectivity.
- c. It raise awareness and social activism.
- d. Social media is useful in community engagement
- e. Social media now become a source and pathway for education.

4. Social media has destroyed real life communication (Antithesis)

- a. Irrespective of geographical barrier, it destroyed face to face interaction^{y.}
- b. How it promotes connectivity when people physically not seen each other^{y.}
- c. Awareness and activism require face to face communication.
- d. Community engagement requires people not platform.
- e. Physical education is preferable on social platform/visual education^{ion.}

5. Even being closely linked but social media has not destroyed real life Communication (Synthesis)

a. From birds to live chat, social media promotes visual interaction.

b. Live chat and Meta platform are nearly equal to physical ^{activity} connection.

c. Single person becomes source of awareness to millions using social media.

d. In modern era, social media act as person as well as platform.

e. Smart education platforms and AI are more beneficial than physical.

6. Conclusion.