

Nizar Hassan's Views on Palestinian Sufferings

Nizar Hassan is a renowned Palestinian filmmaker. In his first production Independence he depicted the absurd idea of Israel's independence over the stolen land of Palestinians. During the Israel's ~~independence~~ annexation to other territories of Palestine, the writer received an email from Nizar Hassan. ^{In which} he shared the documentary "My Grandfather's Path". The main theme of the documentary ^{was} that one needs to be more careful while choosing one's enemies, otherwise, they would end up like them. The consequences of vengeance, resentment and hatred toward enemies is losing one's own self. This master Piece explained the Israel's encroachment on Palestinian rights. Furthermore, it vehemently communicated Palestinian perspective on all these atrocities faced by them in their own homeland.

Precis word count: 117
original passage: 340