

GENDER EQUALITY:

A MYTH OR REALITY:

OUTLINE

1- Introduction:

Thesis statement

2- Crunch paragraph:

3- Gender equality is a myth:

a) Social factors:

- i - Educational barrier is still a problem
- ii - Forced marriage is common.
- iii - Miscarriage due to early pregnancy
- iv - Poor health facilities.
- v - Honor killing.

b) Economical factors:

- i - The employment wage rate and the nature of job offered.
- ii - work place harassment
- iii - lack of property rights.

c) women are politically privileged:

- i - They are deprived of their ~~pat~~ empowerment
- ii - Failed to get recognition in parliament
- iii - No right of vote.

4- Reasons behind Gender Inequality:

- i- male dominant society in exercise of prejudice.
- ii- Feudalism, poverty, ignorance, and superstitions are behind the cruel practices.
- iii- Absence of economic reforms.
- iv- Illiteracy, economic weakness, and social injustice have resulted in political maltreatment of women.

5- Examples of gender Inequality from Pakistan:

- i- women's movement
- ii- Zahab Noor case -

6- Examples of gender Inequality from world:

- i- Indian's dowry death.
- ii- Afghanistan case study.

7- way to forward:

- i- The provision of religion, education, health, social respect and property inheritance should be made available for women.

- ii - Elimination of feudalism, ignorance and superstitions should be targeted to uproot the evil practices.
- iii - Economic reforms should be initiated to enhance the economic stability of women.
- iv - The political empowerment of women can compensate for the political exploitation of women over the years in Pakistan.

8- Conclusion :