

Our Scientific Power has outrun Our Spiritual Power

Outline

I. Introduction

Thesis statement: Man's overreliance on scientific power has outrun^{ed} his spiritual power. This dependency on scientific world has converted human being into hollow being and material being. Therefore, infusion of spirituality with scientific advancement can revive humanness in modern human. ✓ Comprehensive

II. Our scientific power has outrun our spiritual power: An overview

III. This is how scientific power has outrun spiritual power:

- A. Man has become slave of technology, though he is born free and independent
- B. Exposure to too much information against human has desensitized humanity
- C. Association of intelligence with machine for its computational power has reduced human trust on his own intellectual abilities
- D. Human online presence has taken toll of his real life interaction
- E. To excel with pace of scientific advancement has constructed a materialistic and "me first" approach
- F. Scientific power has widened the gap between human and nature

- G. Scientific power has guided missiles but misguided man.
- H. Replacement of human being with machine has made man to think him as a worthless entity - Invisible human
- I. Production of self-destruction weapons has threatened human's own existence

IV. Implications of dominance of scientific power over spiritual power:

- A. Scientific power has polarized the world - Bloc politics
- B. Technically advanced economies decide the fate of technically crippled economies.
- C. Ecological degradation - politicizing the issue of climate change for materialistic interests
- D. Poor governance system for controlling surveillance
- E. Stratification of human to fit Big Data and target customer privacy for Commercial benefits

V. Spiritual power can revive humanness in modern man as it;

- A. introduces the concept of equality and morality
- B. inculcates the principle of freedom and independence - Man of free will
- C. motivates to strive during hard-time
- D. infuses parenting as a universal principle
- E. build relationship between man and nature - Nature as soul healer

VI. Conclusion

Man is the worst enemy of his own self

I. Introduction

II. Man - the worst enemy ; an overview

III. Man his worst enemy - the manifestation

A. Climate change denial and inaction - destroying his own home (Earth)

B. Depersonalization - treating others as mere objects

C. Destructive ideologies - suicide bombing and terrorism

D. Materialism and Consumerism - valuing external possessions over humans

E. Cultural homogenization - exterminating diverse cultures ; Identity Crisis

F. Misuse of medicine - opiod epidemic
Corona pandemic

G. Addiction to social media - Cyberbullying, -ve mental consequences

H. personal toxic and abusive relationship

I. Financial self-sabotage - overspending and debt accumulation

IV. Factors making man the worst enemy:

A. Psychological factors ✓

i. self-doubt and low self-esteem

ii. Fear of success and failure

iii. Loss of impulse control

B. Emotional factors

i. Negative emotions (anger, jealousy)

Notes
12/12/2021

ii. Self-sabotage as a coping mechanism

C. Addiction and dependency

- i. Substance abuse
- ii. Behavioral addiction

D. Cognitive biases

- i. Confirmation bias (confirm their existing belief)
- ii. Short-term bias (prioritize short-term gain over ^{long-term} well being)

E. Lack of self-awareness

- i. Denial and avoidance (avoid addressing the problems)

V. Mitigating men's self-erecting character by

- A. Promoting self-awareness and self-reflection
- B. Fostering emotional intelligence
- C. Valuing well-being over materialism
- D. Empowerment through education and media literacy
- E. Challenging societal norms.
- F. Prioritizing mental health.

VI. Conclusion

"So scared of what your enemies will do to you. But you're the only enemy you ever seem to lose to"

Angelica Schuyler's "Congratulations", The Hamilton Mixtape

Social media can harm the society

I. Introduction

II. Essence of terms

III. How social media can harm the society; through

- A. polarizing society by disseminating politicized information
- B. propagating extreme narrative
- C. becoming tool of propaganda - raising false news
- D. providing platform for cyber-bullying
- E. Mentally hijacking youth - over indulgence in social media
- F. Creating vision of isolation - Fear of missing out.
- G. Breaching privacy; stalking identity theft, personal attacks, misuse of information.
- H. Paralyzing creativity and critical skills
- I. Losing oneself - identity crisis
- J. threatening democracy - freedom of expression
- K. Creating unemployment; posting personal stupid stuff

IV. What to do to save social being from being at social loss through social media :

- A. Creating internet free-zones
- B. Imposing strong censorship over information shared on social media

C. Reviving social gathering & get-together culture

D. Imparting ethical values

E. Promoting mental healthcare programs

F. Shifting mindset from harmful approach towards progressive, positive approach.

G. Motivating towards e-learning and e-learning scheme, website rather than destructive sites.

V. Conclusion

To enslave someone is bad, but to be anyone's slave is the worst

I. Introduction

II. Essence of terms

III. The myth that slavery does not exist today - Modern day slavery:

A. Sex trafficking

B. Forced labor

C. Slave to technology

D. Imprisonment - US Criminal system has 34% of African American

E. Debt programmes and development projects - BRI, IMF

IV. Why to enslave someone is bad:

A. Taking away someone's basic rights forcefully - morally disregarded act

B. Snatching someone's freedom; the natural thirst of human

~~C. Enslaving someone leaves a legacy of discrimination; enslaved and free man~~

D. Maltreating humans dishonors and disregarding humanity by

i) Sexual Abuse

ii) Mental Abuse

iii) Physical Abuse

E. Economically impairing others aggregates poverty and inequality

F. Enslaving others reduces the life expectancy

G. Enslaving others paralyze human growth - innovation

H. Enslaving others fuels the growing resentment, extremism and violence - leading to genocide, massacre.

V. Why someone to be anyone's slave:

A. Man is servile by choice

B. Servitude is a matter of custom and education

C. If one does not know the freedom, one cannot desire it

D. People enslave themselves by distraction

VI. To be anyone's slave is the worst:

A. Self-subjugation; the worst level of degrading humanity

B. Self-imposed slavery is self-denial to one's own basic rights

C. Acceptance of being the lowest in human - loss of self-dignity

D. Self-imposed abuse - letting others to harm one's

E. Self-imposed economic paralysis

F. Immitating others; self-negation and self-alienation ;

VII. Conclusion ✓