

Woman hold up half the sky

- 1 Introduction:
- 2 Role of woman in different eras of time
 - a) Hunter era
 - b) Settlement era
 - c) Industrial era
- 3 World War II analysis
 - a) Germany and Western countries development analysis after world war II.
- 4 Comparison of western and non-western countries
Comparison of top twenty countries in Gender Gap Index list with respect to woman participation in development
- 5 Factors perpetuating woman's ^{zero} participation in development
 - a) Entrenched illiteracy

- b) Regressive cultural values
- c) Poor implementation of woman-centric laws.
- d) Ingrained Favouritism Towards son.
- e) Increase gender based violence
- f) decreased mobility opportunities.
- g) Discrimination with respect to salaries and remuneration.

6 What are much needed reforms, the presence of which can bring woman's participation in development?

a) By Following Gender equality rules.

- (i) Focus on health.
- (ii) providing educational opportunities for woman.
- (iii) Allowing political participation.

iv) Providing work opportunities.

b) Implementing woman empowerment principles.

- i) Treat fairly women at work
- ii) Well being of woman
- iii) professional development of woman.

~~According to the writer was destroyed every civilization and its values can not leave it.~~

(iv) Gender equality

(v) Public report on Gender Gap Index

vi) Woman should have high level in companies.

vii) Women enterprises.

c) Farzana Bari approach to

to tackle religious and cultural barriers in way of women participation in development.

i) Segregate Rural and Urban woman issue.

ii) Provision of health and

and property rights to rural women.

iii) Give educational and economic facilities to Urban women.

iv) Case study of Dr. Yarnis and Kingara Mathi

7- Conclusion.