

Batch: ~~55~~ R/WP 08-50

Name: Sulais Ahmad Khan

Academic Paragraph Structure.

Subheading: Negative effects of Social Media on Youth.

| | |
|-----------------------------------|--|
| Topic Sentence | The social media has been proved as one of the most contributing factors to have negative effects on youth. |
| Explanatory or Reasoning sentence | It has been confirmed through studies and researches that social media has affected our youth in a negative way which mostly includes the school, college, and university students. |
| Supporting point (1) | Social media is reported to have caused poor mental health disorders like anxiety and depression. Along with these, it is also responsible for the reason of procrastination in youth. It also destroys the creative abilities of the youth as well. |
| Example/Evidence. | A recent survey found that all teens (95%) ages 13 to 17 uses social media with more than one in three are reported to have using it constantly, and studies have shown that who use social media for more than three hours daily are vulnerable to the poor mental health conditions. |
| Supporting point (2) | Social media has also motivated our youth towards the terrorist activities. |
| Example | According to the latest report published by Al-Jazeera, thousands of young men living in different countries run the campaign of terrorist groups on social media like facebook and whatsapp. |
| Concluding Sentence | This shows that social media is affecting our youth in a very bad way. It has a lot of numerous effects on our youth, like poor health conditions, procrastination, involvement in terrorist group activities, and destruction of their creative abilities. |