

Elites pulling down Pakistan, timely elections would help implementation of reforms agenda.

Outline:

- 1- Introduction.
- 2- Lexical ~~mean~~ root of elite-class and their hindrance shape course in Pak's advancement.
  - a. Ruling or high ranked class; elite class.
  - b. Mostly, corruption is being exercised through elites.
  - c. Tax exemptions have been gotten by them.
  - d. Human rights violations by elites.
  - e. Take special benefits through subsidies.
  - f. System of balanced justice is also being captured by them.
3. What gets Pakistan through such exercises.
  - a. Social disorder in community.

- b. The rich become richer and the poor more poorer.
  - c. Justice would not be catered in justifiable manner.
  - d. Unemployment, robbery and theft etc., unwantedly, would be increased.
  - e. Education, health etc., would be catagorized and mis-managed.
4. Reforms implementation and elections.
- a. Inevitably, now, elections and reforms implementation are looking confined to each other.
  - b. Political uncertainty might be resolved through elections.
  - c. Re-organisation and re-structuring could be confirmed through elections.
  - d. Foreign investments and countries will be met to electables, directly.
  - e. May, be, good electables with enshrined minds.
5. Conclusion.