

Advantages of Laziness.

The writer pointed out that the busy people are the most wicked one who do not know where to utilize their energies. He added that the world is facing many evils due to these people just like devil who never waste his time, but causes many harms. He further said that if in July 1914, all the stakeholders would have decided to do nothing to launch or votations and enjoying instead of doing war stuff, then, we might have a better world than now. Even today if European politicians ~~do~~ do nothing for a little time, it will be better for the people. Moreover religious sects also waste their energies in unimportant matters. In short, these all matters can address if we renounce the belief that laziness is bad and do nothing in certain matters.

Total words: 504

Word Count: 131