Title: Nizar Hassan : A Palestinian Filmmaker

Nizar Hassan, a Palestinian filmmaker produced two great films on occupation of Palestine by Israel. In his film titled "Independence", he ridiculed the Israel's concept of independence which was actually the occupation of Palestine.

In his second film "My Grandfather's Plath", he advises Palestinians to choose enemies wisely and not to abandon their ideals and aspirations while fighting against Zionist enemies. The author also appreciates the Palestinian fiction, art and literature uninfluenced by politics. "My Grandfather Plath" is an artistic representation of excellence. Therefore, the author recommends to watch it in one sitting to feel the essence of this masterpiece.
