

Promoting Tourism in Pakistan: Opportunities and Challenges

One is the introduction paragraph

And another is the concluding paragraph.

Please go through both .

"The world is a book, and those who do not travel read only one page. Challenges become stepping stones to opportunities, turning every journey into a chapter of growth" Saint Augustine's. Similarly, Pakistan is one of the most beautiful chapters in those world chapters. In fact, many <sup>the</sup> hurdles are <sup>also</sup> on way to promoting tourism and <sup>also</sup> having great opportunities to boost it. Moving towards its opportunities, Pakistan is blessed with ancient civilizations. Moreover, it has a great potential of adventure tourism owing top mountains worldwide ~~and~~ with beautiful sceneries. Pakistan invites tourism through showcasing of local cultural festival and presence of local handi crafts markets in the country. However, it has faced many problems to promoting it. The most important obstacle is terrorism in the country which creates social chaos. In addition to political polarization hinders infrastructure development, limiting tourists' access to remote areas.

On the other hand, international media propagates negative image Pakistan. Therefore, government should provide security to visit and needs to implement tourist friendly policies. Furthermore, social media is a great step to promote tourism in Pakistan. In a nutshell, recognizing Pakistan's ~~soft image~~ struggle to build its soft image, it is important to identify factors harming its reputation deterring tourism. Implementing effective policies becomes vital to boost tourism and improve image.

Conclusion

In a nutshell, Pakistan is a tourism hub in the world. It is blessed with top mountains and beautiful sceneries. It is having many religious sites in the country. Moreover, it invites visitors through showcasing of local festivals and domestic markets. However, there are many obstacles in promoting tourism in Pakistan. It has faced resurgence of terrorism which creates fear and insecurity. Political polarization is on the peak which hinders infrastructure developments. International media is propagating negative image of Pakistan. Therefore, it is crucial to provide security to visitors and promote tourism through social media. It need to improve transportation facilities to boost tourism. There is famous saying "Rome was not built in a day" and neither is the potential of a nation. As Pakistan faces challenges, and have great potential. One day it will remove all the obstacles and its beauty, history and culture will shine and will attract more tourists around the world.