

Digitalization of Judicial system will surely provide justice to Pakistan's Public.

Thesis Statement:- There are alot of current challenges in Pakistan's Judicial system, like as a huge number of delayed cases and judge are understaff. However, digitalization can be a game changer for the formation of justice centres. Furthermore, there will be many challenges and considerations in this hard process for a good cause?

Outline:-

I- Introduction

II Current challenges in the Judicial system of Pakistan-

- (a) Delayed cases for many years-
- (b) Limited accessibility and transparency.
- (c) Lower number of efficient judges
- (d) Lack of infrastructure of courts-

III. Digitalization as a game changer on making good formation of Justice-

- (a) Case Management systems-
- (b) Electronic filing and documentation
- (c) Enhanced efficiency and reduced delays-

- (a) Automated process and workflow-
- (b) Ensuring data security and ~~privacy~~ confidentiality-
- (c) Ethical use of technology in legal proceeding-

IV- Challenges and considerations towards digitalization of justice systems-

- (a) Education and Awareness Initiatives for the public and staff-
- (b) Building Perception and trust of public
- (c) Adaptation to technological change-
- (d) Building confidence in digitized judicial systems-

V- Conclusion -