

Terrorism and Pakistan

Terrorism has been deeply engrained in the chequered history of Pakistan, begin with the Kalashnikov culture, is now plaguing the social sphere of country. Different terrorists outfits have emerged which challenged the writ of state and stigmatised its peaceful and harmonious image globally. Every years, hundreds of military personnels are getting martyrdom while repelling the ^{terrorists} ~~country~~ and serving the country.

"No religion is responsible for terrorism. People are responsible for violence and terrorism." (Barack Obama). The threat of terrorism has plagued the societal structure of state.

India sponsored terrorist outfits

It has become a vexed question for Pakistan's agencies to curb and eliminate the terrorism activities of different outfits sponsored by India. In today's globalised world, it has become easy for the rival states to plague and haunt the social peace and development of the enemy state. Pakistan's strategic and arch-enemy 'India' has been trying to stigmatise Pakistan's image as a terrorist state through providing calandestine support to different outfits. "We have irrefutable evidence that RAW and DIA - their Intel Agencies - are financing terrorism in Pakistan and training terrorists, harboring them and taking practical steps

West's Double Standard over Palestine Cause

The western world has been a staunch supporter of world-order based on democratic tenets and principles. The west has even tried to intervene, invade and depose the political representatives of countries for the effective implementation of democracy. But in the current changing international milieu, they are sternly supporting and chanting for the Israel 'Goliath', which is perpetually conducting mass carnage and irreparable losses inflicting to the Palestinians. The USA's congress has approved a bill of $66bn for Israel as an aid, was unequivocally published by the CNN. The world has witnessed the double standard of west in the Palestine-Israelis conflict.

Social media shapes the Perceptions of Issues

The social media has been a powerful and effective communication's tool to shape and influence the perceptions of people. Different governments of world throughout their tenure has resorted to social media to change their public perceptions to adhere their vested interests. Owing to inter-connectivity and globalisation, every individual has gotten access to the social media via smartphones and computers. In the ongoing war between Israel-Palestine, the west has tried to change the perception of people regarding the Hamas by declaring it as a terrorist state. In the current technological-driven cosmos, social media is used as an effective medium to change the public's perception

Social Media has destroyed the real life communication

Access to the social media is the need of hour, but it has deeply embedded in our societal framework. Modern and technological-driven devices of social media has made it easy to get access to the social media platforms via internet. Mostly people spend their huge chunk of time on social media while ignoring the real life communication with its peer-groups. The more social media we have the more think we're connecting, yet we are really disconnecting from each other. It has become a common practice for the social media users to actively engage on different platforms while ignoring the real life communication.

Pakistan women have the equal chances as men countries make progress through equal participation of all genders without any gender-based inequality. But in Pakistan's case, it has obvious that the men are given preference to the women in all spheres of life. The women instead of having skills and professional prowess remained unemployed. Upto 35 percent of women are unemployed in Pakistan, as revealed by a research by Gallup Pakistan and PRIDE across the country. The country's efforts in providing equal chances to both men and women are not commendable.
