

It matters not what someone is born,
what they grow to be.

Introduction

Crunch paragraph.

OUTLINE:

1) Why it matters not what someone is born, what they grow to be?

- a) Your growth rate of life is not interlinked with the birth.
- b) The physical appearance of a person does not decide their success.
- c) Cognitive abilities shape your success.
- d) Your thinking process about any situation of life determine your growth.

2) How your growth is not link with birth?

- a) Disabled person have more cognitive abilities than a normal person.
- b) A passionate person has strong ambitious regard life.
- c) An example of birth of Hazrat Muhammad (S.A.W.W) in the reign of Supers' disgrace.
- d) A strong perspective about your goal design your growth.

3) What are the key components of growth?

- a) Hardworking is the key of success.
- b) Self belief is just like you win the battle.

- c) Combat fight against your Nafs a
- d) Way Forward to the growth.
- d) Social factors does not define you what you are.
- e) Doing what you want despite of that what others thinks about you.

How to improve your growth?

- a) Make an organization which organize a campaign at regular intervals in a Society.
- b) Conduct a seminar at institution levels who tells them how to improve your growth.
- c) Proper counselling is a tool to trigger the growth of someone.
- d) Make a debate at international forum that how international actors work together to boost the growth.

Conclusion: