

The Fools Speaks and the Wise Listens

Listens

Outline

1. Introduction:

Thesis statement: The one who has wisdom need not to express it by speaking, as it is vividly reflected through their actions, which can only be taken after listening. Conversely, the one who knows less will always fill the void by speaking and act reactive rather than responding approach.

2. Significance of Listening Could Only be Acknowledged by a Deaf

3. Wise Need not to Impress Through Speaking

- a. Listening gives wisdom
- b. Great inventors: Observe, listen and act
- c. Active listening: Breeds good comprehension
- d. Wise scrutinise flaws: Via listening
- e. Policy formulation: Requires addressing and listening
- f. Wise listener: Critically evaluate the pros and cons
- g. Broad sighted people: Listens more

- h. Wise listener: Understand problems and formulate solutions
- i. Wise listener: Nation builders

4. The Fools Try to Fill the Void by/ Through Speaking

- a. Fools opt: Reactive approach
- b. Hides the absence of wisdom
- c. Narrow Sighted: Speaks more
- d. Try to impress: Not to express
- e. Lacks critical thinking

5. Wise listening leads to Solutions

- a. Martin Luther, Nelson Mandela: Listened the problems, formulated solutions accordingly
- b. Climatec risk mitigation: Requires listening to suffering nations
- c. Poverty alleviation: First needs wise listening to Poor's problem

6. Everyone wants to be Understood, no one wants to be Understanding

7. Conclusion

