Q.2: Write a précis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title: (20)

The incomparable gift of brain, with its truly amazing powers of abstraction, has rendered obsolete the slow and sometimes clumsy mechanism utilized by evolution so far. Thanks to the brain alone, man, in the course of thousands of years for animals to achieve the same result through the processes of evolution. Thanks to the brain alone, the range of our sensory organs has been increased a million-fold; for beyond the wildest dreams; we have brought the moon within thirty miles of us, we see the infinitely small and see the infinitely remote; we hear the inaudible; we have dwarfed distance and killed physical time. We have succeeded in understanding them thoroughly. We have put to shame the tedious and time consuming methods of trial and error used by Nature, because Nature has finally succeeded in producing its masterpieces in the shape of the human brain. But the great laws of evolution are still active, even though adaptation has lost its importance as far as ourselves if we misunderstand the meaning and the purpose of our victories. And we are free to forge ahead, to prolong evolution, to cooperate with God if we perceive the meaning of it all, if we realize that it can only be achieved through a whole hearted effort toward moral and spiritual developments. Our freedom of which we may be justly proud, affords us the proof that we represent the spearhead of revolutions; but it is up to us to demonstrate, by the way in which we use it, whether we are ready yet to assume the tremendous responsibility which has befallen us almost suddenly.

Evolution of Brain and its Responsibilities

~~Brain~~ is ~~mysterious~~ ~~creation~~, that has

Brain is unique blessing with immense sensory powers evolved with time. It has turned impossible dreams into stunning realities. It has made human capable of understanding mysterious nature. However, the advancement processes are still under process due to evolution.

The moral and spiritual efforts of humans are responsible for the evolution.

A man can either mislead the purpose of his life, or he can achieve the true meaning of life by surrendering himself to God. Therefore, it is responsibility of human to adopt the righteous path.
