

Abstracts

Good people don't need laws to behave good

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement:- Good people have always good behavior that do not needs laws. In fact, inner purification of good people is a blessing from God that shows natural purification, love for humanity, humility etc. Moreover, people-to-people connectedness for goodness is superior to any law. Thus, behavior of good people can grow without any support of laws. (55 words)

2- Good people are always good with inner purification An Overview

3- Why good people do not need laws to behave good

- a) Natural purification of innerself always listens heart
- b) Humility from God is a gift to behave good
- c) Love for humanity is superior to concrete laws
- d) family heredity goodness leads to good generation

4- Role of surroundings in individuals good behavior

- a) Parents, family, peers etc have a crucial role in leading to good behavior
- b) Education is a key player of shaping a good model

c) Religion always promote one's ethical consideration

d) Frequent social campaign for 'goodness' do not need laws

e) Environmental practices have a huge influence on one's behavior

5- Good behavior is inclusive rather than exclusive

a) Interconnectedness of the world is based on good behavior rather than good laws

b) Political performances agree to good behavior over laws

c) History reveals supremacy of good people as good behaviors

d) Good behaviors are immortal; laws can be mortal

6- Ways to increase good behaviors, not laws

a) Giving religious education from childhood to build good characters

b) Promoting and encouraging moral values in society

c) Increasing culture of 'good books' as 'good friends'

d) Connecting people-to-people bond on the name of goodness

7- Conclusion