

Is Pakistan Ready for Digital Revolution

1- Introduction

Thesis statement

2. Crunch Paragraph

3- Why Pakistan is not ready for digital revolution (thesis)

- a- Public is not mature to have safe use of technology
- b- Institutional Acquisition Syndrome against the state
- c- Ideological divide weakening Pakistan
- d- Absence of technological giants operating in Pakistan
- e- Failure of Cyber Security

4- Why Pakistan is ready for digital revolution (anti-thesis)

- a- Pakistani Public has ability to handle any technology effectively
- b- Pakistan's struggle to bridge the gap between institutions and public

- c. Self-evident efforts of Pakistan countering ideological divide
- d. Collaboration of Government with technological giants
- e. Pakistan's cyber security Policy 2021 - a step in right direction

5. Pakistan's preparedness for digital revolution is inadequate (Synthesis)

- a. Pakistani Society is never groomed to use technology effectively
- b. Institutional acquisition syndrome is still prevailing
- c. Pakistan's preparedness to counter insurgency is weak and slow
- d. Thin economy of ~~Pakistan~~ is hindering the entrance of technological giants in ~~Pakistan~~
- e. Cyber attacks have been increased in recent years instead of being halted

6. Conclusion

Self-belief is half the battle;
self-doubt is the other

1. Introduction

Thesis statement

2. Crunch Paragraph

3. Equal importance of self-belief and self-doubt in an individual's life a- lack of self-belief hinders craving for goals

b- lack of self-belief refrains individual from securing worldly success

c- lack of self-belief halts individual in stepping out of comfort zone d- lack of self-doubt restricts individual learning process

e- lack of self-doubt stops individual from taking precautionary measures

4. Factors contributing in imbalance of self-belief and self-doubt in individual's life at family level

a- Unnecessary admiration from family b- Discouraging environment of family

c- Gender prejudices posed by family

5. Societal and professional sphere either injects either excessive self-belief or self-doubt a- Social stratification creates imbalance between self-belief and self-doubt b- Imposition of strict social norms

c- Dynastic legacy in business leads to excessive self-belief

d- Partial organizational norms lead to excessive self-doubt in employees

6. Importance of balance between self-belief and self-doubt in religious connotations

Islam's

a- Prohibition of superstitious dogmas leading to ~~excessive~~ self-doubt in Islam

Equal

b- Importance of self-doubt in Islam

c- Iqbal's concept of self-belief

7. Broader factors engendering imbalance between self-belief and self-doubt a- Institutional anomie leads to lack of self-belief and self-doubt in a- ~~Individuals~~ an individual and society

b- Economic dependance of state on foreign aid leads to self-doubt

8. Conclusion