

Social Justice

1- Thesis Statement :

Social Justice is not only about economic, civil and criminal justice, but also environmental, gender and equality of opportunity. As Tony Honore says that "equality of opportunity is the essence of social justice". It paves ways for national development.

2- Crunch Paragraphs

Social Justice means and envisages the fair and equitable distribution of wealth, provision of basic necessities to all individuals and protections of the "haves not" from the exploitation of "haves". Summarily, it aims at bridging & minimizing the gap between rich and poor people of the society.

3- Advantages of social Justice

- a- Social justice paves way for economic prosperity.
- b- Social justice brings national development.
- c- It provides socially compliant workplace environment.
- d- It creates sense of belonging in individuals.
- e- Social justice ensures equality among citizens.

4- Obstacles emerging from socially non-compliant society.

- a- No social justice means no equality.
- b- It hinders the way of development and economic prosperity.

c- It makes individuals to flee their homelands and search for protective and secure land.

d- It results in the failure of commercial enterprises.

e- It is against the principles of societies or government policies that have ever existed.

5- How to achieve social Justice?

a- Laws and policies should be implemented in letter and spirit.

b- Response mechanism should be expedited and made cost free.

c- More interaction between employers and employees.

d- Prioritizing merit over links.

e- Awareness among masses.

6- Conclusion.