

Make a Precis of the following paragraph: -1

Target: Omission of 1st and 2nd Person Pronouns

You may have heard the saying, "knowledge is power." This statement is particularly true when it comes to education. When you invest in your education, you are investing in yourself. You gain new skills and insights that can help you make better decisions and achieve your goals. At the same time, education can open up doors to new opportunities and experiences. As you continue to learn, you develop a better understanding of the world around you and how you can contribute to it. So, don't hesitate to invest in your education. Empower yourself and take control of your future. By acquiring new skills and knowledge, you can qualify for higher paying jobs and have a more successful career. Education helps you develop the ability to analyze and solve problems, which is valuable in both personal and professional settings. As you learn and achieve new things, your confidence and self-esteem grow. This can lead to a more positive and fulfilling life.

Precis Exercise/Assignment

Paragraph #01:

Topic: Knowledge is Power

Knowledge is very powerful tool for the progress and growth of humans. It is one of the great investment because it is a source of achieving the goals and purpose of life. It is useful for the improvement of thinking abilities for one's life. Through education and better learning one can get a successful and shining future. Thus knowledge has very positive impacts on one's life.

---

Make a Precis of the following paragraph: -2

Target: Omission of Examples

Terrorism is a brutal and inhuman act that causes immense harm and suffering to individuals, families, and entire communities. It can take many forms, including bombings, mass shootings, kidnapping, and hijackings, and is often motivated by political, religious, or ideological extremism. The horrors of terrorism are numerous and far-reaching, leaving physical, emotional, and psychological scars on those affected. It can lead to loss of life, permanent disabilities, and displacement of populations. Terrorism also creates a climate of fear and insecurity, affecting the daily lives of people and the stability of societies. The international community must come together to address the root causes of terrorism and work to eliminate this global threat.

Paragraph #02

Topic:

Terrorism: A Global Threat to Humans

Terrorism is a use of violence that is very harmful for the people. It has many kinds and is often triggered by some extremist groups. It has very negative impacts and it reduces population's size. This issue should be resolved on global level for maintaining peace and stability among people.

Make a Precis of the following paragraph: -3

Target: Signification

Wrath is a powerful emotion characterized by intense anger and indignation. It often arises in response to perceived injustices or insults, and can lead to destructive behavior. The effects of wrath can be far-reaching and long-lasting, damaging relationships, reputation, and one's own peace of mind. Furthermore, wrath can escalate quickly, fueling a vicious cycle of retaliation and retaliation.

However, it's important to recognize that wrath is a natural emotion that everyone experiences at some point. The key is to manage it effectively, avoiding the impulse to lash out in anger and instead taking the time to reflect and respond calmly. By doing so, individuals can avoid the negative consequences of wrath and maintain their dignity and self-respect. In conclusion, wrath is a powerful emotion that requires careful management. By recognizing its potential consequences and taking steps to regulate it, individuals can avoid the destructive outcomes of anger and preserve their well-being and relationships.

Paragraph #03

Topic:

The Negative impacts of Wrath and its solutions.

Wrath is a negative emotion that arises due to poor behaviour. One of the negative impacts of this are personality disorders and toxicity in relationships. Although it is a natural feeling but by doing some patience it can be controlled. Thus wrath is a negative emotion and has deep impacts but by managing the anger issues, it <sup>can</sup> ~~should~~ be avoided.