

Comprehension

CSS 2013

Ans 1= The author considers Confucius belief as delusion because of his estimation about society progress was in negative (non-progressive). He believed that good ruler was the reason of people happiness. His conviction was that, the modern human were unable to get ^{inner} satisfaction.

Ans 2= Confucius thoughts helped China to become stable and well-developed china socially as well as economically. Moreover, maintaining the way of development and not always striving after new triumphs.

Ans 3= The Confucius system deserves respect and admiration because it was survived during difficult time like civil war and barbarian invasions. This was the only system that survived as other falls.

Ans 4= The autor calls Confusian system a purely ethical system because it was survived in all conditions. It was not a religious because if it was religion then it was not survived during invasions. Moreover, it talks about common gentle practices which make life easier for all.

Ans 5= Yes, I agree with Confucius' ideal of a gentleman because I also believe that true gentleman respect their opponents even when he is angry.