

Topic: Is Pakistan Ready for Digital Revolution?

Outline

1. Introduction:
Thesis Statement: Evaluating Pakistan's preparedness for digital revolution requires a critical examination of existing challenges. These challenges may hinder to fully embrace and benefit from technological advancement.

2. Crunch Paragraph

3. Pakistan's preparedness for digital revolution is questionable, keeping current challenges in view (Thesis)

a. limited integration of Digital technologies in our daily life.

b. lack of investments in Digital sector.

Lack of digital infrastructure is also a challenge.

c. Inadequate Government policies

d. limited youth engagement in technological sector.

4. Despite challenges Pakistan's attention towards digitalization makes it ready for this revolution (Antithesis)

a. multiple applications are now being used by masses.

b. Pakistan has more than 2000 IT companies.

c. Digital Education in Pakistan is on rise with high speed internet

d. Digital Pakistan Policy 2018 shows Pakistan's inclination towards digital transformation

5. Navigating a Pragmatic Path towards Digital evolution. (Synthesis)

- a. Internet enabled mobile phones are mainly use for social media & not for vast range of digital services.
- b. Striking balance between Traditional & digital economies.
- c. Lack of awareness and qualified teachers in digital education results in low technological literacy.
- d. Less attention towards effective policies related to digital sector can be seen in multiple forms on different applications.
- e. Youth involvement is considerably less as we don't see active participation & encouragement towards youth's contribution in digital wellbeing of Pakistan.

6. Conclusion.

Make precise phrases