

Destiny of a nation is shaped in its classroom,

Outline;

(A) Introduction;

(a) Classrooms are the places where, children are nurtured to build a nation. Certainly, destiny of a nation is shaped in its classroom as education shapes a nation's future, and classrooms nurture future citizen who will lead the nation.

(b) Grasping the connection between destiny of a nation, education and classrooms.

(B) Developed nations focused more on education than the developing nations.

(C) How destiny of a nation is shaped in its classrooms?

(a) Classroom eradicates the feudalism from the society

(b) Classroom makes the future builders of nations conscious about the difference between right and wrong.

(c) Classroom develops the awareness about the democracy,

(d) Classroom builds the physical, intellectual and moral faculties among the students.

(e) Classroom makes children aware about the inclusive growth.

(f) Classroom promotes the tolerance and interfaith harmony.

(g) Classroom and education are the only ways to inculcate the right and justice.

(h) Classroom fill the gap of inadequate human development.

(i) Classroom develops the law abiding citizens.

Phrase it properly

(D) Challenges faced by education sector in Pakistan;

(a) Lack of awareness about the importance of education.

(b) Low allocation in the budget.

(c) Women are away from education.

(d) Lack of research oriented methods and techniques.

Phrase it in a more better way

(E) Recommendations for the betterment of educational sector;

(a) Equal access to education for both genders.

DATE: _____

DAY: _____

(b) Promotion of research and better teaching methods ✓

(c) Proper budget allocation could be a step to betterment. ✓

Recommendations should align with topic

(f) Conclusion ;