Date: Day:
Name: - Asad Ali
LMS 10 :- 30306
Batch :- 54
(V) restion.
YUCSTIOIL:-
Folish K. Carris O. O.D.
Enlist the Criminological Persped ive. Briefly describe three people Behavior Crime Study and Criminal Mixadual
1.1000daction: Coimino)
Ex understadios provide Framework for understanding crime and criminal behavior. These theories cover the making and breaking of the law Criminal and deviant hehavior The classical theories cover xational decision-making and deflexance while the postiviet parcharting Tocuses on biological Psychological and Sociological factors influencing Criminal behavior. These theories perspectives continue to quide policy-making and contribute to the Study of come and arminal Justice St Contre 4119 Chiveran Classical School of Thought CIUSICOX OCHOOX OF HIDOUR

Date: _	Day:
1)	Background of Classical Perspective
a)	Origin from Age of Enlightenment The classical theory owes its start of "Age of Enlightenment" which brought radical changes in philosophy, political, scientific and sociological thought Land series of the series of the series b)	Thomas Hobbes argument on Crime Thomas hobbes argued that the human beings naturally pursue their desires without taking core to accumulate wealth, one may feel no qualm or hesitation in hilling some else.
	rinary source ase.
C)	Social Contract Perspective:
	The Social contract view also gave impetus to debate on Orininal law and retorns leading to the emergence of classical school at thought.
2)	Cocos D
9)	Cesare Becaria: The Joundar of Classical School:
	Cesare Beceraia	•
	was actually a exitic of the cruel punishments inflicted upon the oftenders in Captrobus monno. He wrote an essay on crimes
	The will all essay on almes	10.46.5

Date.	Day:
	and punishments" in which he critical the method at barbaric punishment and personalized criminal justice system where Punishments were inflicted on the basis of personal colums.
	MOTOR PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY
3)	Thoughts of Cesare Beccariaon
	Crime in Pre classical period:
	Bernaigs
	thoughts centered on the concept of utilitarianism i-e People Commit	7.72 crime out of the desire to seek pleasure so crime can be Prevented by helicted punishment
	Crime Prevention Punishment
	Crime Prevention Punishment
4)	Basic element of Classical theory:
4)	Basic element of Classical theory: There are several basic element
4)	Basic element of Classical theory: There are several basic element of Classical theory.
y) i)	Basic element of Classical theory: There are several basic element of Classical theory People have free will to choose
y) i)	Basic element of Classical theory: There are several basic element of Classical theory People have free will to choose criminal or lawful solutions to
y) i)	Basic element of Classical theory: There are several basic element of Classical theory People have free will to choose criminal or lawful solutions to meet their needs or settle their
i)	Basic element of Classical theory: There are several basic element of Classical theory People have free will to choose criminal or lawful solutions to meet their needs or settle their problems
i)	Basic element of Classical theory: There are several basic element of Classical theory People have free will to choose criminal or lawful solutions to meet their needs or settle their problems Crime is affractive when it promises areathenefits with little effort.
i) ii)	Basic element of Classical theory: There are several basic element of Classical theory People have free will to choose criminal or lawful solutions to meet their needs or settle their problems Crime is affractive when it promises areathenefits with little effort.
i) ii)	Basic element of Classical theory: There are several basic element of Classical theory People have free will to choose criminal ox lawful solutions to meet their needs or settle their problems Crime is affractive when it promises great benefits with little effort- Crime may be controlled by the fear of Dunishments
i) ii) iii)	Basic element of Classical theory: There are several basic element of Classical theory People have free will to choose criminal or lawful solutions to meet their needs or selle their problems: Crime is affractive when it promises areatherefits with little effort- Crime may be controlled by the fear of Dunishments Princepol that is or is perceived Basic element of Classical theory: There are several basic element of Classical theory People have free will to choose criminal ox lawful solutions to meet their needs or settle their problems Crime is affractive when it promises great benefits with little effort- Crime may be controlled by the fear of Dunishments

Date: Day:

Date:	Day:
	brain is composed at different organi	- each of which is responsible for particular mental faculty or charge Frank. These organ were thought to be larger or smaller depending on the strength of the corresponding trait
	A backling broken a same
3)	Atavism of Cesare Lombraso's Criminalogical theories
		- 0
	Atavism 1	_
	refers to the idea that Criminals exhibit physical characteristics that are reminiscent of our prinative ancestors or lower primales. Lombraso believed that theselata-	- vistic trails were evidence of a biological predisposition to come.
	Diologicax poecisposition to come
4)	Body type theory (smatolype) by Body type theory (smatolype) by William Sheldon According to William Sheldon, all humans can be divided into 3 body shapes Endomorphs
	The state of the s	- •
	Human	+
	Beings Ectomorphs	+
	A service of the serv
	Mesomorphs	-
	Mesomorpis

Date:	Day:
1	Endomorphs: Fat and Soft
iii	Ectomorphs: - Thin and Progile
Ciii	Mesomorphs: - Muscular and Hard Sheldon believed that these 3 body tipes were not only physical but also psychological. He bottomas proposed each body type was associated with set of personality trails-
-	10 - 6 Coursia CO
_5/	Inheritance theory of Criminal Behavior hheritance theory in positivist criminology posites that criminal behavior is reperited from parents through genetic predispos ition. The theory was popularized by Halian physian Cesar Lambrasa in the 1	ate 19th Century. Lombroso believed
	Coininal had physical abnormalities	1
-	that inherited.
6)	Intelligence theory of bot with between intelligence and Crime.
-	Intelligence theory has been used by positivist criminalogists to explain the relationship between intelligence and Crime. Some positivist criminologi ist to explain the relation have conqued that there is a link between low intelligence and criminal 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1

Date.
	Carlo
	Sociological theory
7	The second of th
1)	Social Disorganization Theory.
	Social disorganization theory is sociológical theory that explains how the breakdown of social Structures and relationship leads to increased crime rates. The theory was first developed by sch. olars at the university of Chicago In the early doth century and it has been influential in oximinology ever Since.
i)	key tenets of Social disorganization Theory:
a)	Crime is more prevalent in areas that lack strong social ties and institution.
b)	Social Organization can be caused by a variety of factors such as proverty, unemployment and populati ion buryover.
(2)	Social disorganization leads to a breakdown of intornal social control which in two leads to increased 225	Crime.
(ii)	Social Disorganization Theory and Coime Prevention:
	Zation theory has been to interm crime prevention strategies. These Clime prevention structure

Date:	Day:
	strategies typically focus on strengthening social ties and institutions in high-crime neighbor hoods. Example of such strategies include community policing, neigh borhood watch programs, and after school programs.
9)	Strain Theory of Criminology Strain theory is a sociological. Theory that explains how strain and stress can lead to crime. The theory was first developed by Robert h. Merton in his 1938 Paper "Social structure and Anomie"
i)_	key tenets of strain theory	- G
i)	Crime is a result of strain, which is the pressure that individuals feel to achieve socially accepted goals but lack the means to do so.	/d
ii)	Strain can be caused by a variety of factor, such as poverty unemployment, discrimination, and lack of education
(iii _	Strain can lead to crime in two ways through innovation and through retreation
10)	Innovation occurs when individual adopt illegitimate means to achieve socially accepted goals- For

Date: Day:
example, a persons who is unat to find a job may resort to Stealing to earn money.
v) Retreatism occurs when individ	ual gove up on socially accepted goals and withdraw from socie	4,
Chronically unpolarion who is	0 home less and engage in substan	we abuse.	i(e
Editor of Land and the second
ii) Strain Theory and Crime Dreven	riso Strain sheary has been lived to intorm crime prevention strategic	29
These strategies typically for	5 on reducing strain by providing individuals with the means to achieve socially accepted goals.
Example of such strategies indi	A job training programs, educationa) opportunities, and social welfare Program.
3) 8 00 100
3) Social Control theory of Criminlo	94 social Control theory is a	N .
Sociological the ory that explain	5
how society maintains order an	d developed by Travis Airschi in his 1969	-
1) Key Component of Social Control	  hetm 2

Date:	Day:
(i	Crime is caused by a weakening of social bonds that bind individual (íí	There are four main types of social bonds: attachment commitment involvement and belied. Attachment is the emotional the connection that individuals have determined the connection that individuals have determined.
		seco nd
·	Commitment is the investment that individuals have in conventional	t of the estion e
- - - V)	myovement is the time and energy	oretical t on 6 jes and 2
- 	Conventional activities par	jes on ond ans lon macorans	clude the
_	clusion, criminalogical theoriside provide proper framework for	max7/20 understanding criminal. The classical theory emphaines rational decision making, the positivist theory	* and socialogical factors-The social environment.
	And the second of the second o	