

Children must be taught how to think not what to think.

I Introductions

Thesis Statements

To encourage independent thought, creativity and problem solving abilities, it is important to focus on developing their critical thinking skills by providing opportunities for exploration, fostering a supportive learning & open ended questions.

II Benefits of teaching children how to think

III Foster Critical thinking skills.

(i) Encourage questioning and evaluation of information.

(ii) Develop problem solving abilities.

(iii) Teach them to think logically and analytically.

(iv) Engage in open-ended questions & debates.

IV Promote creativity & Innovation.

(i) Encourage exploration & open mindedness.

(ii) Enhance decision making abilities.

(iii) Support the development of unique perspectives.

(iv) Empower them to make informed choices.

V Strategies for teaching children how to think.

(i) Encourage curiosity and inquiry.

(ii) Emphasize critical reasoning skills.

(iii) Teach logical thinking and problem solving skills/techniques.

(iv) Foster analytical skills.

(v) Ability to evaluate information.

(vi) Encourage understanding and tolerance.

(vii) Expose children to diverse perspectives

Conclusions

Well organised

Avoid repetition of ideas