

Water crisis in Pakistan: Causes and Solution

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement:- In Pakistan, several factors are responsible for water crisis which include, population explosion, rampant urbanization, misuse of water etc. In consequence, Pakistan has become vulnerable to massive implications. Therefore, Pakistan should take robust measures to decrease water crisis for the better future. (Words-42)

2- A bird's eye view of the significance of water for Pakistan

3- Factors behind the water crisis in Pakistan

- a) Growing population is a root cause of water crisis
- b) Rampant and unsustainable urbanization in Pakistan
- c) Overuse and misuse of ground water leads to water crisis
- d) Mismanagement of water in agricultural sector
- e) Ineffective water governance and insufficient information for provincial water management
- f) Provincial conflict on the construction of dams
- g) Water boundary share disputes among regional countries

4- Implications of water crisis in Pakistan

- a) Massive water scarcity poses threat to existence of Pakistan ✓
- b) Decline in economic growth due to agricultural meltdown ✓
- c) Food scarcity, hunger, mal-nutrition etc has put Pakistan in a severe trouble ✓
- d) Health of the youth has become vulnerable to various diseases ✓
- e) Risk of provincial dispute on water need is growing in Pakistan ✓
- f) Diplomatic relations with neighbour countries are at stake on water conflict ✓
- g) Political instability has caught Pakistan in a vicious cycle ✓

5- Robust Measures to counter water crisis in Pakistan

- a) Enhancing awareness campaigns on water saving ✓
- b) Constructing large and medium size dams in Pakistan ✓
- c) Controlling population explosion in order to escape Pakistan from water crisis ✓
- d) Making sustainable urbanization in Pakistan ✓

6 Conclusion