Ways to Interact with children

In recent times, modern studies criticize absence of authority while educating children. These studies undermine the importance of friendly environment between children and teachers at school. It further elaborates that children that develop acquaintance towards teachers ~~who~~ are considerate ~~for~~ ^{about} them out of affection. Therefore, children accept the rule of authority due to friendly bond ~~and~~ flexible surroundings. In contrast, children are not comfortable in an environment where teachers maintain discipline under strict rules. However, teachers with friendly behaviour deliver more precisely without any loss. It is also important ^{that} teaching profession should be opted as a part time ~~job~~ to maintain its efficiency and effectiveness. Consequences of exhaustive work routine leads to ~~unbearable~~ fatigue or irritation. Hence, ~~in~~ mutual ~~ly~~ conducive friendly surroundings do not require set of rules ~~for~~ discipline rather it results in good decisions.
