

Q-6 Write a comprehensive note on Zakat System of Islam and its spiritual, moral and social impacts.

Ans

(1) Introduction:

Zakat is one of the five pillars of Islam and is a form of obligatory charity. It involves giving a portion of one's wealth, usually 2.5% of certain assets, to help those in need and to purify one's wealth. It promotes social equality within the Islamic community.

(2) Literal Meaning:

The term "Zakat" is repeated almost thirty times in Quran. It is an Arabic word. It means, "To clean or to purify," "growth," and

"giving better part of thing"

(3) Contextual Meaning:

It means, to purify wealth and belonging.

A famous quote by Sachiko Murata and William Chillick,

Just as the ablution purify the blood and salat purifies the soul, so zakat purifies possessions and make them pleasing to God."

(4) Why Zakat is necessary in Islam

Zakat hold significant importance in Islam due to its multifaceted role. It serves to purify wealth by instilling a sense of generosity and selflessness), ensuring equalization of distribution of resources in the society. (Ibn Al-Qayyim) (2)

said in Quran

"Zakat expenditures are only for poor and the needy and those employed to collect and for bringing hearts together and for freeing captives" 9:60

try to add the arabic of quranic ayats as well.

By aiding the less fortunate, it promotes social welfare and solidarity. It also promotes our religious obligations, marking it as a fundamental practice for financially able followers to demonstrate their commitment to faith and community.

"And whatever you spend,
He will replace it. (34:39)

(5) Conditions of Zakat:

There are certain conditions on which zakat is made compulsory.

- Zakat is obligatory on Muslim Only
- He/She must be adult, sane and free person
- He/She must be financially capable
- Zakat is obligatory on surplus wealth
- The intention to give zakat as an act of worship

(6) Recipients of Zakat.

Zakat is not for everyone. It is only for

_ / _ / _

specific persons, like Allah Revealed told in Quran.

"So give to the near relative his right, as well as to the needy and the traveler. That is best for those who desire the countenance of Allah, and it is they who will be the successful. 30:38

(7) Nisab of Zakat:

Nisab of Zakat on certain possessions is described in Quran. This possession is for the minimum of one year. Hazrat Muhammad (S.A.W.) said, "Allah has made Zakat obligatory on you for this very reason that the remaining wealth of yours may be pure for you."

Nisab of Zakat

Type of Possession Nisab of Zakat

- Buried wealth/minerals 20% / 20%
- Wealth/Income 2.5%
- Gold 75 tola
- Silver 52.5 tola
- Trading in Stocks 2.5% on running stock (1)
- Arid land 10% on every yield
- Irrigated land 5% on every yield
- Goats 40 Goats / 1 goat
- Cows 30 cows / 1 goat or 1 calf
- Camels 5 camel / 1 goat

not required.

(8) Heads of Zakat:

Allah said that

"Zakat expenditure is only for the poor and the needy, and the officials (appointed) over them, and those whose hearts are made to incline and the (reasoning of) captives and those in debts and in the way of Allah and the way fairer; in ordinance from Allah: and Allah is knowing, wise". (9-Tawbah 9:60)

Neither the Quran nor the Hadis specify the relative divisions of Zakat into eight categories. According to the Shaffi

Jurisprudence book, Umdat
as salik wa Uddat on Nasik (Reliance of the Traveller and Tools of the Worshipper) by Ahmed ibn an-Naqib al-Misri, the shafi School requires zakat to be contributed equally among the eight categories of recipients

 Spouses and Grand parents.

10- Impacts of Zakat.

Zakat has many types of impacts depending upon the situation.

a) Spiritual Impacts

These are

1/1/20
further divided into the following

i) Purification of Soul:

Zakat

purifies the soul of the human. As Allah has said in Quran

"He shall be saved from Hell fire who is God fearing and who gives riches to other for the purification of his soul" .. (al-Lail 92:17-18)

ii) Remove Love of Materialism:

The real enemy of man which keeps him away from religion is the love of wealth and world. Hazrat Muhammad (S.A.W) said that,

1/1/20

"The greatest evil of my Ummah is wealth"

iii) Zakat: Bring man closer to God:

Zakat brings a man closer to Allah. As Allah have said in Quran.

"The example of those who spend their wealth in the way of Allah is like a seed which grows seven spikes: in each spike is a hundred grains and Allah multiply from whom he wills and Allah is all-Encompassing and knowing. 2:261

(b) Moral Impacts

(i). Prevents Social Crimes:

The majority of the society is poor and can't meet their basic necessities of life. As Allah has said in Qur'an:

"If you disclose your charitable expenditures, they are good; but if you conceal them and give them to the poor, it is better for you, and He will remove your sins from some deeds."

(ii). Humanitarian Spirit:

Zakat is an effective weapon against selfish greed and "sound" (d) illustration of humanitarian spirit (d)

(iii) Creates Generosity:

Zakat creates
the sense of generosity
among the believers. Hazrat Muhammad (S.A.W) said "The believer's shade on the Day of Resurrection will be his Charity."
give them to the poor.

(c) Social Impacts:

(i) Eradication of Poverty

Zakat provides basic necessities to the poor people. The prophet (S.A.W) said,

1/1/20

"Verify Allah has ordered the payment of Zakat on them. It will be taken from the rich and returned to their poor (Muslims)"

(ii) Circulation of wealth

It helps free distribution of wealth. It prevents the accumulation of wealth in few hands. It aims at equal distribution of wealth. Allah said in Quran.

"And it should not be that wealth is accumulated in few rich hands."

(iii) Welfare State:

Zakat infuses

ins. man. the spirit of social welfare and the man who keeps his money to himself due to selfishness and narrow mindedness. As Allah narrated in Quran.

"Allah has blighted usury and made qim giving fruitful : (2:276)

ii) Conclusion

Zakat in Islam stands as the pillar of Faith, embodying principles of generosity, social justice and responsibility. Zakat fosters a more equitable society and cultivates a spirit of generosity, promoting individual purification and communal solidarity.

overall good answer!!

but the answer is lengthy and will affect your time management. so shorten it a bit.

8-9 pages are enough.
