Contrary to the welcoming behaviour <sup>towards</sup> of the British <sup>colonialists</sup>, Sir Syed Ahmed Khan and his prudent son Syed Mahmood adopted the attitude of equality in rank and status to the <sup>British</sup> Britishness. Everyone is aware of the 1867 Agra Darbar event. Sir Syed got along from this court because there the Indians were provided the lower rank seats. A medal was going to be awarded to Sir Syed Ahmed Khan. Later on, Commissioner Williams of Meerut was given assigned the task of awarding the medal to SSir S Syed at Aligarh railway station.
