

Nizar Hassan's Views on Palestinian Sufferings

Nizar Hassan, a renowned Palestinian filmmaker. In his first production 'Independence', he depicted the absurd idea of Israel's independence over the stolen land of Palestinians.

During the Israel's ~~independence~~ annexation of other territories of Palestine, the writer received an email from Nizar Hassan. ^{In which} he shared the documentary "My Grandfather's Path". The main theme of the documentary ^{was} that one needs to be more careful while choosing one's enemies, otherwise, they would end up like them. The consequences of vengeance, resentment and hatred toward enemies is losing one's own self. This master this is copied from the main passage

Piece explained the Israel's encroachment on Palestinian rights. Furthermore, it vehemently communicated Palestinian perspective on all these activities faced by them in their own homeland.

Precis word count: 117

original passage: 340

main idea is picked but the basic grammar is too weak need improvement in sentence structure over all the content is picked from the main passage need to write in your own expression and words not satisfactory

need improvement 3/20