

We are the last generation
to touch a book.

1- Introduction:

Thesis Statement: This generation is the last generation to touch a book. ~~The digital platforms are providing material to read resulting in the decline of book reading culture.~~ Book reading needs to be encouraged and promoted so the next generation could benefit from it.

Did not comprehend the topic

2- Gradual decline in book reading culture.

3- How is this generation last to touch a book.

- a) Youth prefers watching movies or documentaries.
- b) Invention of Artificial Intelligence
- c) Instant availability of book on digital platforms.
- d) Books consume more space - heavy to carry around.
- e) Concept of doing everything fast and efficient.
- f) Rapid growth of technology.
- g) Lack of encouragement from parents and teachers.
- h) Absence of adequate environment for reading.
- i) Social media has made people summary readers not book readers.

4- Negative impacts of the decline in book reading culture.

- a) Lack of thoughtful minds.
- b) Avoiding academic circles.

- c) Lack of problem solving skills
- d) No emotional attachment with books
- e) Decrease in tolerance level.

5. Way Forward: To preserve book reading culture.

- a) Educational Seminars should be held.
- b) Build libraries at public places
- c) Co-ordination of parents and teachers in encouraging the students to read books.
- d) Normalise book reading during traveling.

5. Conclusion.

- a) Youth prefers watching movies or documentaries.
- b) Invention of Artificial Intelligence
- c) Instant availability of books on digital platform.
- d) Books consume more space - hard to carry around.
- e) Concept of doing everything fast and efficient.
- f) Rapid growth of technology.
- g) Lack of encouragement from parents and teachers.
- h) Absence of a better environment for reading.
- i) Social media has made people more busy.

Correlation between Globalization and Climate change.

1- Introduction

Thesis Statement: Globalisation is an independent phenomenon but is interconnected to the climate change in several ways. Climate change being an effect of globalisation has in return appeared to be a global challenge for globalisation. To address the challenges posed by this relationship, global co-ordination, sustainable practices and policy interventions are crucial.

2- Globalisation and it's effects on climate change.

3- Negative aspects of correlation between Globalisation and climate change.

- a- Extensive deforestation - for urban lifestyle.
- b- Habitat destruction due to globalisation
- c- Excessive reliance on transportation causing climate change
- d- Transport technology inventions led to the increase in carbon emission
- e- Global Trade of Carbon intensive technology caused environmental degradation
- f- Extreme use of fuel and energy to run the global world.
- g- Economic dents due to climate change.

4. Positive aspects of correlation between Globalisation and climate change.

- a- Enhanced cooperation between the nations against

Climate change

- b- United forums to discuss climate change
- c- Diffusion of climate friendly technology which is impossible without globalisation
- d- Supranational powers playing efficient role in rescuing world from climate change through globalisation
- e- Global shift towards renewable energy resources.
- f- Joint mechanism to control air pollution by carbon emissions
- g- Concept of sustainable future

3. Way Forward: Globalisation Tool to contain Climate Change.

- a- Mass awareness and public campaigns.
- b- Effective implementation of 17 SDGs on global scale
- c- Promoting green tech on global scale
- d- Global compaign of tree plantation
- e- Restricting expansion of large cities

6- Conclusion.

This statement should be more self-explanatory