Children must be taught how to think, not what to think.

Outline

①

Introduction:

The topic is that children's thinking should not be controlled. They should not be told what they should think but how they should think. They should be given the skill and information to practice thinking but should be left free on how they utilise this information.

Thesis statement: Children are the future of any country. It is important to teach them about thinking. Because, children face trouble in thinking without proper direction. Fortunately, there are specific approaches that can help children in thinking.

How to think

This thesis statement is not on the topic.

②

Thinking is an art that needs to be taught

③

Why is it necessary to be taught how to think?

Not exact relation between critical thinking and IQ

- a- To increase their IQ level
- b- Trained them for competitions
- c- Necessary to protect them from negativity.
- d- To inculcate creativity among them
- e- For the healthy growth of the children
- f- For the betterment of the society.

Do not equate that with education. This can be better stated as it enables them to compete at global level.

Propaganda and agenda setting

Problems occurred in children

when ~~they think without~~ learning

They are taught what to think not how to think

- a. Children think without proper focus.
- b. Unnecessary thoughts inculcate in their minds.
- c. Always thinking with the fear of future.
- d. Remain confused between right and wrong.
- e. Not giving importance to necessary things.

You need to give the point for how restrictions on thinking can lead to certain repercussions in children and their growth. For example teaching them what to think can result in indoctrination, it can hamper their ability to differentiate from right and wrong, it can compromise their critical thinking. It can make them more vulnerable to radicalisation and misinformation.
