

~~ec~~ Greek's antagonism of Nature 3

Greeks were blessed by nature. Nature blessed Greeks with beautiful landscape; but they ^{did not} didn't enjoy it ^{but they neither enjoyed it, nor expressed its beauty.} expressed this beauty in their poetry or art. Their ^{hilly} landscape did not allow agriculture. ~~and~~ It was a home to many wild animals and it proved disastrous in times of natural calamities.

Similarly, ~~in Homer~~, the sea was the ^{main} source of their livelihood but ^{people} they ^{disregarded} disregarded it.

During the times of Greek republic, no major revolution came to change their attitude regarding nature which they ^{saw} saw with fear and discontentment.

Then with the end of Greek republic this natural beauty and sootlener changes into pollutive environment after which authors ^{began to} recognize the importance of natural beauty and began writing about it.

Tense mistakes. Structure of neither nor needs improvement.

Total words = 375

Precis words = 120