

Miseries Faced by Human

Human development ^{has} faced the afflictions ~~faced~~ by nature and misguidance of man. ^{Environment} Environment was ~~the~~ ^a threat to man and his survival in harsh weather.

~~Human~~ ^{Man} had advantages of upright posture and intelligence which made him different and his population increased. Nature knew how to maintain its hegemony through natural calamities. In this age dominance of nature is vanishing due to scientific intelligence of human. Natural calamities still happen but ^{man knows} ~~man~~ know how to tackle them with hard work and ~~an~~ intelligence. Man can be free from relationship with nature but not ~~from~~ ^{from} enormities that ^{men} ~~man~~ force on each other like war and greed. Fear still ^{influences} influence many lives.
