

Topic: Only a healthy population can be an asset for a country.

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis statement: A healthy population can play an important role in the development of the country.

But it is not given attention due to which there are problems in the development of the country.

By improving its problems, can be made it an asset for the country.

2. Correlation between healthy population and asset of a country.

3. Why healthy population is important for a country

a) To improve quality of life

b) Long term sustainability

c) Innovation and Research

d) Reduced burden on healthcare system

e) Long working life

f) More improvement in education

4. How healthy population can be an asset of a country

a) Spread of economic growth

b) Better education outcomes

c) Alteration of investment and talent

d) Reduced burden on social services

e) Increase in individual income

f) Expansion of trade on a global scale

g) Debt reduction

5 How can in health system be improvement for healthy population of a country

a) Universal healthcare coverage

b) By more investment on health system.

c) Health education and promotion

d) By getting rid of drugs and stuff

6 Conclusion