

Outline
"We are not what we do say but what we do."

1) Introduction

Thesis statement :- Actions and words both deeply influence humans in almost all dimensions of their existence. They play a pivotal role in defining one's character and personality. However, the supremacy of actions over words means that actions hold much more importance than words.

2) Actions and words :- key influencers of human personality

3) Importance of words :-

- Words and speech - unique gifts for mankind
- Only way to communicate one's true feelings
- Words as sound waves - carriers of energy
- Malleable according to demand of situation
- God created the whole universe by one word

4) Importance of actions :-

- Concrete evidence of one's feelings
- Means to exert one's personality
- Actions - the essence of life
- Importance of actions in religious and philosophical traditions

5) Supremacy of actions over words :-

- Actions cannot be minced like words
- Involuntary actions - spontaneous revelation of one's subconscious
- Impact of actions - deeper than words
- Actions - higher in energy than words
- Actions define habits and ultimately destiny

6) Conclusion