

Pakistani women have the same chances as men.

Outline

- 1- Introduction: Thesis statement - Pakistani women does not have the same chances as men. Unfortunately, Pakistani women lack the same educational, economic, and political chances. Therefore, Pakistani women ^{still} does not have the same chances as men.
- 2- A bird's eyeriew on the status of women in Pakistan
- 3- Pakistani women does not have the same chances as men (Thesis)
 - a) Pakistani women get unequal education as compare to Pakistani men
 - b) Women in Pakistan are deprived of equal economic participation
 - c) Pakistani women do not have the same political chance as Pakistani men
 - d) Pakistani women are confined to homes as domestic machines
 - e) Women are less in numbers in legal system performance

4- Pakistani women have the same chances as men (Anti-thesis)

- a) The constitution of Pakistan has given an equal right of education to both Pakistani women and men
- b) According to the Article 32 of the constitution of 1973, Pakistani women have the same economic right
- c) Pakistani women have specific quotas in political participation
- d) The government of Pakistan has ensured women's safe mobility by introducing women's exclusive buses
- e) Justice Aysha Malik and Meera Hilali effort in legal system is an evidence of the same chances

5- Pakistani women still do not have the same chances as men (Synthesis)

- a) Literacy rate indicates the unfair education between Pakistani women and men
- b) Labour participation is an evidence of unequal economic participation between men and women
- c) Since 1947, Pakistani women participation in politics shows unequal political right
- d) Several harassment and rape cases ensures unfair social mobility between Pakistani women and men
- e) Except a little extent, Pakistani women are lesser in legal performance as compare to men

6- Conclusion