

Sub head Demand of Democracy without democracy within party level.

The main agenda of all political parties is to work for the betterment of democracy within country. All political parties are against the interference of undemocratic forces in political processes.

But when we look at the intra-party elections their democracy first agenda seems not more than a hollow talk. ~~The re-elected~~ Shahbaz Sharif and Maryam Nawaz are re-elected as PM (N) president and vice president again in recently held party election.

In the presence of former prime-minister Shahid Khagan Abbasi and former Finance minister Mufta Ismail such election riles eyebrow on their democracy first commitment.

The situation of other political parties are not much different. In PPP,

Zardari ~~can~~ expressed his ~~wish~~ wish to see his son Bilawal Bhutto as next or future prime-minister. In PTI,

The core committee of Pakistan Tehreek-

DATE: _____

DAY: _____

1) - e- insof, elected Imran Khan as life long chairman of PTI is also a undemocratic act. Such undemocratic steps make one person or a family to control the whole party from top to bottom. Hence without promoting democracy within party level and Their demand for democracy within country is obscured