

Assignment #1

My Favourite Newspaper

My favourite Newspaper is "Jang". Newspapers are called mirrors of the world and "Jang" is a perfect way to display image of Pakistan. This newspaper has a simple text structure which makes it easy for the readers to understand. It also contains a classified page which provides opportunity for unemployed people to search for a job. Many unemployed people have been benefited from this page. In this way Jang is contributing to eradicate unemployment from Pakistan.

It also contains opinion and editorials page from which one can improve his/her understanding about a certain issue. It also increases knowledge base. People can get information about every happening across the world. Along with improving character it also enables one to become a better individual and contributes towards the society. Moreover it also contains letter to the editors which enables the reader to have the information about the ongoing issues. It also provide solution for the specific issue. Jang is a very good and easily understandable newspaper. There is also sports section for the sport lovers. It contain information about every sport happening around the globe. Sport enthusiasts get to know about cricket, hockey, football, polo, and other sports as well. Thus Jang is great source of information for almost every aspect. It provides valuable information.