Exercise No. 3

Read the following passage and answer the questions given at the end.

Apart from the political programme, the urgent need for us is to take steps and put into effect the economic, social, and educational programme which was laid down by the resolution of the All India Muslim League at Lucknow. It is the economic and social uplift and the education of the people that constitute the true foundation of a nation. I would, therefore, urge most forcefully upon the leaders of various provinces and the district leagues and they should immediately take up various matters which will go to make a solid contribution towards the economic and social uplift of our people. My appeal to the Mussalmans once again is: "Don't depend upon anybody. You must depend upon your inherent strength....." We have to go through a great deal of spade work and sufferings. Our opponents will use all possible means of suppression. They may practise tyranny and may persecute us (ایذا پہنچانا). But I am confident that we should emerge (اُجرتا) out of the ordeal (آزمائش) purer, better and stronger than we ever have been."
