

(DR.NADEEM AHMED (RWP-038 ONLINE)

“It matters not what someone is born, but what they grow to be”

OUTILINE

1)INTRODUCTION

T.S

2)THE PATTERN OF GROWTH IS OF SIGNIFICANT IMPORTANCE RATHER THE CONDITION FROM WHICH IT TOOK PLACE

3)THE SIGNIFICANCE OF GROWTH AT FUNDAMENTAL LEVEL.

3.1) Achieving success despite the constraints of limited resources.

3.2) Minor disputes in family, if left unresolved , can escalate into a life-long conflicts.

3.3) Chance encounters or relationships can evolve into enduring commitments.

3.4) Initially compelled into a profession, but later it become more cherished than any other.

3.5) The quest to uncover the unknown phenomena evolved into a vast wellspring of knowledge.

3.6) The expansion of Islam from its origin to a worldwide religion.

4) THE IMPORTANCE OF GROWTH ON THE INTERNATIONAL STAGE.

4.1) An endeavor to link nations evolved into the formidable force of globalization.

4.2) The conflict that erupted in one region had repercussions felt by nations across the globe.

4.3) The transformation of modest economies into a global economic powerhouses.

4.4) The release of green house gases has emerged as a worldwide concern.

4.5) The global dissemination of diseases originating from an endemic area.

4.6) The escalation of prices in international markets.

5) THE SIGNIFICANCE OF GROWTH IN PAKISTAN'S DEVELOPMENT.

5.1) The fight for people's rights evolved into a political movement, ultimately culminating in the formation of Pakistan.

5.2) Taking on debt during times of necessity turned into a habit, leading to a vicious cycle.

5.3)What begins as a short-term military intervention evolved into an ongoing process within the democratic framework.

5.4)The present political polarization at its zenith.

5.5)The evolution of Pakistan's relations with other nations.

5.6)The continuing surge of terrorism and extremism in Pakistan.

6) CONCLUSION