

Online learning is not only convenient but more effective than traditional learning.

Outline :

Introduction

- Thesis statement

Crunch paragraph.

Overview of traditional classroom

Instruction.

How online education is convenient

- Online education reduce transportation cost
- Remote areas can get easy access to education
- Minimize the impact on climate change by reduction in transportation and paper usage.
- Less Online learning is less expensive than traditional instruction method.
- Less chance of unplanned distractions

(like accidents, or extreme weather) that reduce the risk of ~~loss~~ loss.

How online education is more ~~com~~ effective than tradition classroom instruction.

- a). Students have access to variety of resources
- b). Student can learn from subject expert and extend professional network
- c). It train the student to use technology and enhance technical skills
- d). Online education is time saving mode of education.
- e). Rate of retention is higher in online learning as compared to traditional.
- f). Students gain more knowledge than in standard classes.

Challenges to online education.

- a) There is no equity and accessibility to technology
- b). Lesser attention of student slow down the process of learning
- c). People has limited access because of different geographical locations
- d). Lack of administrative and monitoring system in online education.

Solutions/Way forward:

- a). Promote awareness about use of technology.

- b). Encourage the creative learning methods in online education
- c). Regular feed back to engage the students and help them to stay active
- d). Proper administrative and monitoring of online learning.

Conclusion: