

Topic: Economy of politics: Pakistan's conundrum

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis statement: Pakistan confronts with colossal conundrum of both economy and politics. However, political conundrum is echoing more than economy. Resolving political problems will help in oxygenating economic conundrum.

2. Overview of Pakistan's colossal conundrum

3. Politics is Pakistan's conundrum

- a) Political polarisation destabilising economy
- b) Absence of rule of law derailing economic activities
- c) Extractive nature of institutions weakening economic performance
- d) Rampant corruption losing investors' confidence
- e) Vested interests of politicians and ruling elites

(PTO)

4. Economic conundrum of Pakistan

- a) Teetering on the brink of default
- b) Unable to attract FDI
- c) Dwindling foreign reserves
- d) Weakening of currency and currency depreciation
- e) massive import-export gap

5. Addressing political conundrum will help in resolving economic conundrum

- a) Stable government with sound policies resuscitating economy
- b) Politically stabilised society ensuring safety of investors
- c) Inclusiveness of institutions leads towards better economic performance
- d) Restoring economic confidence in the market through reforms
- e) Sacrificing politics over national interests by taking unpopular decisions.

6. Conclusion

Economy of Politics: Pakistan's conundrum

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis statement: Pakistan faces a myriad of conundrums of both economy and politics. However, political conundrum is severe than economic's. Resolving former conundrum will help in oxygenating later problem.

2. Overview of Pakistan's conundrum

3. Pakistan's conundrum of politics exacerbates economic conundrum:

- a) Poor performance of government
- b) Absence of rule of law derailing economic performance
- c) Increasing institutional clash
- d) Rampant corrupt looting investors' confidence
- e) Demoralisation of institutions leading to little attention towards economy
- f) Prolong political polarisation destabilising economy.

(PTO)

- g) Extractive nature of institutions weakening economic performance
- h) Death of democratic norms and values
- i) Populist decisions conveying no reforms in economy
- j) Vested interests of politicians and ruling elites

4. Pakistan's economic conundrum

- a) Teetering on brink of default
- b) Skyrocketing inflation
- c) Massive import-export gap

5. Addressing political conundrum will help in oxygenating economic conundrum

- a) Rescuing economy through sound economic policies
- b) Nipping rising devaluation through righting bail-out package
- c) Restoring economic confidence in the market to attract investors

6. Conclusion