

Topic: Courting Controversy: Free, Fair and Inclusive Election.

Outline

① Introduction

Thesis Statement:

Free, fair and inclusive election is the basis of democratic societies. However, the electoral process often becomes a subject of controversies. Therefore, some candid measures are essential to ensure free and fair election.

2) Elections and Courting Controversies: An Overview.

3) What are Free, Fair and Inclusive Elections.

- a) Equal opportunities for all candidates and political parties.
- b) Allows all individuals to express their opinion without coercion.
- c) Electoral process is driven without any pressure.
- d) Voice of marginalized groups in electoral process.

4) Controversies Surrounding the Election

- a) Exclusion of candidates and political parties from election.
- b) Interference of government in electoral process
- c) Spread of misinformation through social media platforms
- d) Challenges faced by opposition.
- e) Case Study: Current Situation of Pakistan

6) Ensuring Free and Fair Election

- a) Strengthen the democratic institutions.
- b) Effective role of Election Commission in implementation and regulation of electoral laws.
- c) Inclusion of all political parties in election.
- d) Devoid the interference of government in Electoral process.

7) Conclusion.