

"Narration Practice"

CS - 2015

Q#5 Rewrite the passage, converting what is ⁱⁿ indirect speech into indirect, and what is in indirect into direct.

- (i) Just as we came in sight of valley Jamil met us, --- "yes, the valley is all very fine, but do you know there is nothing to eat?"
- "Nonsense", we can eat anything here."
- "Well, the brown bread's two months old, and there's nothing else but potatoes."
- "There must be milk anyhow!"
- "Yes, there was milk, he supposed."

Ans Just as we came in sight ^{at} of valley Jamil met us and said that the valley was very fine, but if we knew there was nothing to eat. We rejected it as nonsense and said that we could eat anything there. Jamil warned us that the brown's bread was two months old, and there was nothing else but potatoes. We inquired that there must be milk anyhow. Jamil replied ~~that~~ positively and said that it was available.

Paragraph Writing

Paragraph Writing Practice.

(Body Paragraph)

Subheading: "The role of resilience in overcoming Adversity"

1. Topic Sentence:

Resilience and steadfastness are the key factors in overcoming the adversities and atrocities.

2. Explanatory or reasoning sentence:

Resilient attitude and behavior empowers a person to face the adversities unwaveringly, and also gives the ability to conquer whatever problem life ~~throws~~^{us} at them.

3. Supporting Point:

Historical data shows us that resilient nations as well as resilient personalities overcome their crisis and problems, ~~and~~ become even stronger, and ready to strive for future battles that await them.

4. Example:

Among resilient nations Pakistan and India have come a long way and are still striving to become developed nations. Imran Khan (Ex-Premier Minister of Pakistan) showed resiliency and finally got his hands on the reigning Power of Pakistan.

5. Concluding sentence:

Therefore, resilience plays a vital role in overcoming atrocities and opening new opportunities.

No of words : 120. words.