

Past papers PAIR OF WORDS

(2016)

1. Adverse: (unfavourable)

This medicine has an adverse effects for you.

Averse: (oppose)

He was not averse to any change.

2. Altogether: (completely)

He is altogether a different person.

All together: (everything together)

Mix it all together with a spoon.

3. Allude: (Hint indirectly)

I did not allude to anyone or anything.

Elude: (escape, avoid)

The killer was able to elude the police.

4. Braise: (To cook in fat and a liquid)

oil. He braised the beef in olive

Braze: (Join metal parts)

Blades and segments are welded by

Curb: (Restrain, restrict)

Keep a curb on your anger.

Kerb: (Raised edge)

The car bumped against the

6. Faze: (Disturb, disconcert)

This bad news did not faze him.

Phase: (Part, stage)

This is the second phase of

7. maybe: (one word means possibility)

Maybe, it can be a virus.

may be : (Two words meaning possibility)

I may be a little late for a lunch.

8. Moat : (Deep, wide Ditch)

She was digging a moat around her house.

Mote : (Small piece of Dust)

The small mote on her face was very strange.