

Preci - 2020

Manto and his work

The Public opinion about Manto was ambiguous. Those who disliked his writings accused him as an immoral person. He never took account of any criticism and continued to highlight the dark truth of society. He addressed sex in a tangible way that shows his sympathy towards the socially unacceptable figures of society. Manto believed that man possesses both good and bad qualities. His work connects the readers with important moral issues. Contradiction in the personality of individuals irritated him the most. He had an unbiased opinion about shortcomings of people. He had always addressed vulgarity cautiously and wisely. Readers felt their own problems addressed in Manto's literature.

word count: 108